SKETCHES OF THE SEAT OF WAR.

NO. II. BELLA VISTA.

From the doubtful nature of our latest despatches, it is to be feared that the Paraguayans are now in possession of Bella Vista, and in order to keep our readers conversant with the seat of war, the first sketch of which appeared lately in a description of the Riachuelo, we will say a few words about this interesting place.

Bella Vista is almost midway between Goya and Corrientes, being 18 leagues from the former, and 25 from the latter city. It is a most delightful position on the Paraná, and presents a view of unrivalled beauty approached from either side. The orange-groves and houses thickly interspersed cover the brow of a hill some 150 feet high, the plaza being about a mile distant from the beach. It is a straggling place with two or three houses of altos and the rest little better than ranchos, while the streets are impassable after rain: there is a Café in the plaza, but on the occasion of our visit [in 1864] no coffee was to be had there, and a few small shops are the only houses of business.

The town was first settled in 1826 by a colony of convicts from the prison of Corrientes, under Gen. Ferré, and the present inhabitants are a wild-looking race, of very dusky complexion. The principal man in the town is D. Siniforoso Caceres who is a wealthy estanciero and does a large business in exporting horned cattle to Paraguay: he is at present one of the Triumvirate established by the Paraguayans in room of the Governor of Corrientes. Among the residents are Padre Giuseppe and Mr. Henry Hall: the former was one of Garibaldi's brigade in Rome in 1848, and is now curate of this parish. The latter is the only Englishman of the district, and has a magnificent orange-grove a league southwards on the bank of the river, The Captain of the Port is Mr. Scotti, a native of Gibraltar. The population is estimated at 1,000. Latitude 28.29 South, and Longitude 59.07 West.

As a military position, Bella Vista has some importance, being connected with all parts of the province north of the river Santa Lucia, by good roads. In wet seasons the Arroyo Empedrado sometimes impedes communication with Corrientes, but the route is always open to San Roque, Mercedes, Salinas and Mburucuyá. When the Santa Lucia, is flooded, Goya, Esquina and the southern districts are quite cut off, there being no bridges over any of the rivers.

Bella Vista is much exposed to the attack of war-vessels. The channel on the left or Correntino bank of the river passes the island of Tunas and is only available throughout in high water, being even then only 10 feet deep and very tortuous. The principal channel skirts the Gran Chaco, about a league abreast of the town, with wooded islands intervening; and guns of a long range might hence be brought to bear on the exposed hill-side with damaging effect and without possibility of a reply from batteries of short-range. In low water vessels may ascend as far as the town by the Tunas channel, but cannot pass up the river without doubling back over 2 leagues and skirting the Gran Chaco.

About five leagues below Bella Vista the river comes to a very narrow pass, barely 200 yards wide, called Las Cuevas, where the Chaco Indians formerly swam across to steal the fat cattle of the neighboring estancias. In 1825 a Portuguese settler named Cuevas, with his sons and two daughters, successfully sustained a terrible siege against a host of these savages: the estancia-house may still be seen from the river, crowning the adjacent bluff. If a strong battery were erected here it would incommode the passage of a fleet. Captain Page calls this bluff La Guayafia, and derives the name from an ancient Indian tribe here established, of whom he says some descendants still remain, among the gauchos of the neighborhood.

In 1853 some Americans started a cotton-plantation north of the town, which proved unfortunate: ten years later Mr. Hall and several others again tried, but with no better success. The soil is most fertile, and produces cereals in abundance: several years ago General Ferré got a large grant of land for experimenting a coffee-plantation, which never resulted in anything. The oranges and peaches are of an excellent flavor, and form a great item of trade.

It was here that the Argentine Abelard and Heloise (Gutierrez and Camila O'Gorman) were arrested by Rosas; the parish-priest was then an Irishman, Father Gannon, whose brother still resides at Mercedes. Bella Vista has lately been the scene of a second terrible tragedy of love and murder, by a shopman who became enamored of his master's daughter, and who, for vengeance of unrequited passion, murdered the whole family and blew up the house with gunpowder.

Bella Vista is about 260 leagues from Buenos Ayres, 50 from Paso de los Libres on the Uruguay and 75 from Concordia. If the Brazilian fleet of 8 gunboats shews fight the Paraguayans cannot take it, but as it is rumored some of these vessels are aground and unable to manœuvre, the public need not be surprised to learn by next mail that it is in the hands of the enemy, and that Paunero and Lagraña are forced to shift their head-quarters to south of the river Santa Lucia.

NEWS FROM CHILE.

A new joint-stock bank "Banco Nacional de Chile" has been started in Valparaiso, with a capital of five million silver dollars, of which 3½ millions are paid up: the Provisional Directors are Messrs. Escobar, Garbe, McQueen and eleven others. An English vessel recently arrived lost three boats and two men in doubling Cape Horn. An American clipper arrived from San Francisco in 35 days, the quickest voyage on record.

The Government has received notice from M. Barreda, the Peruvian Minister in London, that the Spanish iron-clad Numancia has been sent out purposely to reinforce Admiral Pareja in attacking Chile. No serious fears are however, entertained of an armed collision with Spanish.

The powerful cacique Mariñan has offered on the part of the Araucanian Indians to come to terms with the Chilian Government, and the Intendente of Angol has directed all the minor authorities to offer no difficulty to a grand pow-wow under Mariñan's direction.

The small-pox plague still devastates Chile, the hospitals in Santiago having 477 patients of this loathsome disease. The 'Guia de Arauco' announces discoveries of gold at Angol: one nugget weighed 2¾ oz. The Spanish frigate Vencedora is at Valparaiso. The floating-dock at that port was completed on April 12th, and was launched same day. The steamer Maypú conveyed a battery of rifled cannons to the southern provinces.

Nothing can exceed the indignation of the Chilian press at the vote of thanks passed by the S. American Congress of Lima to President Pezet for his arrangement of the question with Spain, which the 'Mercurio' declares a treason and fraud.

D. Marcial Martinez is named Chargé d'affaires at Lima. Mr. Carl Moesta has received 10 months' leave of absence, to attend an Astronomical Conference at Leipsig to which he is invited as Director of the Chilian Observatory.

The barque Annie Fisher from Swansea rescued 18 of the passengers and crew of the Victorine which foundered near Cape Horn, bound from New-York to California. The American pilot boat Viola engaged in seal-fishing lost her captain, mate and 8 sailers on March 22nd, but they were supposed to have reached some of the islands of Chocos and a vessel was sent to look for them.

LATEST FROM AUSTRALIA.

THE CRUISER SHENANDOAH.

The Remark from New Zealand and Glenshee from Melbourne arrived in Valparaiso on April 10th with dates to Feb. 25th. On that day the Confederate cruiser Shenandoah left Melbourne for the Pacific, her supposed destination being Panamá.

NEWS FROM MONTEVIDEO.

THE GOVERNOR STILL UNWELL.

FRENCH ADMIRAL'S DEPARTURE.

NEW BOLSA.

The continued indisposition of his Provisional Excellency has made this place as 'triste' as an hospital. Many are of opinion that the approaching campaign would be too much for the Governor, and that Caraballo will be mobilized. The doctors do not seem to understand the Governor's complaint, and, I am afraid, will bleed the poor man to death. I fear that Flores will go like the lamented Cavour, unless either of the English doctors is called in at once to feel his pulse. The Brazilian mortality still continues; every day nearly a score of our allies is laid low; they nearly all die of consumption or small-pox, or some such complaint. Baron Tamandaré has gone the right way, however, to put a stop to this extraordinary mortality, by ordering all his countrymen off, some by land, and others in the ships. The army of occupation is now, I may say, completely gone. The last of these redoubtable regiments filed off from the Cerro the other morning whilst the frost was on the ground. The event, however, which has caused most attention after the state of Flores' pulse, is the departure of the French Admiral for Rio. Previous to leaving, he had a long interview with the Minister, and all sorts of rumors are current as to the motives of his voyage. He received large sealed despatches by the last mail, which it is believed had something to do with the matter. I have been looking for Mr. Lelong, as I hear he wants to see me, and I feel confident he knows all about Chaigneau's trip.

There is nothing more required in Montevideo than just the very thing we have not—a Bolsa. Merchants and brokers have no place to congregate: business is done in a straggling, zig-zag manner, the brokers are a sleepy old-fashioned set of men. We have no Kock or Beutefehr here to run from house to house, and street to street, looking up a commission on a box of tobacco, or a two-inch plank of pine; nothing of the kind, the brokers here enjoy a sort of artificial importance, they have fashionable offices, well furnished, and the buyers go to them. But for the revolution Montevideo would have long since had its Bolsa, but the war stopped the bricklayers, and until last week the half-built walls formed one of the greatest eyesores in the city. A friend has told me that there are two Bolsas at present being constructed, and that whichever is first finished, will be the one patronised by the merchants and brokers; but I see one great difficulty about this Bolsa business, and that is in obtaining a proper manager. The Foreign Club of Montevideo is a small concern, because we have no Price to look after the place, and the Bolsa, I fear, will share the same fate for want of a Rom. Who is to write our daily money articles, our weekly financial reviews; by the bye, I perceive Mr. Rom has given up writing these interesting weekly articles. What is the cause of this: or is it true that Mitre has locked him up as is rumored here? Our Bolsa will prove a dead failure, if we cannot get Rom to manage it, and if I have a chance to see any of the stockholders, I mean to tell them so too, for Buela is a first rate fellow, but he has never studied political economy

Lopez's dash at the Uruguayana has caused a stir here. Half an hour after the news was known, a 'chasque' was despatched to Mujica's saladero, ordering the Brazilian army to right about face and march for Porongos. This move, it is thought, will checkmate Lopez, as it will get all his pawns beyond the hope of salvation. My opinion is, that until Mitré takes the field, these confounded Paraguayans will have it all their own way. The ultra-Blancos, are in the greatest glee here, as they believe that the Paraguayan force at Santo Tomé will shortly cross into the Banda Oriental, and sweep down the banks of the Uruguay, then look in at Montevideo, and subsequently push on for Rio Grande. I confess it requires a peculiar formation of the cranium to swallow such nousense, yet I do assure you such is the spirit of the vanquished party, that in almost every coffee-room in town such illusions are discussed. There are no Shermans in this part of the globe, nor, indeed, can we look for them since your friend Irwin has vanished into private life.

The latest Government decree you would probably like to hear. No more public dinners until after the war. As a matter of course, there was a great cabinet dispute about this, but our Governor had his own reasons for it, and I found them out. It appears that at the grand dinner at the Hotel de la Paz, in your city, after people got tired of the speeches and toasts, one of President Mitre's Aide-de-Camps proposed a song; most of the Foreign Ministers were gone, and Urquiza, Governor Flores, and Peña, the Aide-de-Camp had the end of the room to themselves, Urquiza at once sang, 'Come, let us be happy together,' our respected Governor and Peña chiming in. The Consul-General heard about it, and the result is no more dinner parties until Lopez is in Southampton.

I nearly forgot to mention that recruiting is now the order of the day; all the 'cuarteles' are full, but some how I remark that the demand for 'personeros' is very slack. The Minister of War here is far ahead of yours. Every one whose lot it is to march, goes with the greatest good will, and Brazilian agents are 'engancharing' all the idle fellows about town every day. Few of your readers will guess why listing is so popular here: a couple of weeks ago no one wanted to serve and Battle, when he perceived this, sent at once to Buenos Ayres for Bagley, the Hesperidina man: he came, it was all arranged. Bagley has got the contract: a quart of Hesperidina daily to every man under the Oriental flag; when this was known, there was a rush for the barracks. The Minister has now more men than he requires: he owes all this to a friendly hint from.

ZOZIMUS.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-day is the 12th anniversary of the swearing of the Constitution of Buenos Ayres. It is a holiday in the schools, and Provincial Government office.

All the tailors in town are busy, preparing for the great national fête of Thursday, the 25th.

The secret session of Congress is supposed to have reference to a treaty or question with Bolivia.

In some of the English papers by last mail we read that Bolivia has seized and occupied a territory of 50 square leagues in the province of Amazonas, which is claimed by Brazil.

The Club Progreso ball takes place to-night.

We regret to notice the demise of D. Juan Cano, who died on Saturday night: he was member of the Legislature of Buenos Ayres.

The 'Nacional' states that President Mitre, and the Nat. Guards, will start for the seat of war on the 28th inst.

The 'Eco del Comercio' states that the whole Brazilian garrison in Montevideo has been put under quarantine, owing to the great mortality of the troops.

The Barracas railway made its first trial-trip on Saturday, Governor Saavedra attending.

It is thought the Traction-engines will be placed on the Cordova route.

We have news from Rio Grande [12th inst.], that General Caldwell has started for Misiones with his forces. Canavarro has 6,000 men, and Baros Jaqui is also marching on Misiones.

The weather is no longer Argentine. On Sunday morning the city got a shower-bath, and ever since the rain and mist has continued. The roads, as a matter of course, baffle all attempts at description. Another day's rain and the city will be held by 'General Pantano.'

The secret session of Congress, on last Saturday has caused the greatest curiosity amongst the 'quidnuncs.' We hope that it was called by the President to take into consideration the hint given by the 'Standard,' about land warrants as bounty, instead of paper dollars. We wish to see this suggestion of ours carried out; the Paraguayan war would then prove a blessing in disguise for this country, inasmuch as it would people the desert pampas with a strong, healthy class of settlers.

Our colleague, the 'Tribuna,' opposes the petition of the bond holders, and shows that the speculation is a good one. We think, however, there are two sides to this question, and that if the Government accepted the terms proposed, it would itself be as much the gainer as the holders of the bonds The rejection by Congress of Article '28' was one of the greatest political errors of the day, and all admit this now, but the objection urged to the Article at present is that it might injure the proposed new loan which Sr. Riestra goes to negotiate. To our mind the present low price of these securities in this market will prove much more prejudicial. We have been informed on good authority, however, that there is not the slightest prospect of the petition in question being granted.

The Morgan beef which was on exhibition at our office last Saturday was tried on Sunday having been previously steeped 12 hours in water. We have great satisfaction in stating that it proved equal to the best corned beef we ever tasted, and if it will stand the voyage going home, the Morgan beef will be the great triumph of the age.

We call attention to an interesting correspondence from Arricifes. We could wish that more of our country subscribers would write us the news from their locality. It appears that foreigners out towards Arrecifes only want the chance to come forward and fight the Paraguayans.

It is said, we know not with what truth, that a leading speculator was the author of the two last victories over the Paraguayans: that he had the bulletins printed in Concordia and sent down by the steamer. As patacones fell some twenty-five centissimos the day the news arrived, the "bola" must have paid well.

A subscriber from the Guardia Monte reports camps in splendid condition, the Laguna Seca not a drop of water in it, all the flocks have increased so that the camp is getting too thickly stocked, and severol points of sheep are offered at forty dollars and nothing under.

General Urquiza is encamped close to where we have three or four subscribers. We look forward by each mail to receive a graphic account of the march, the halt, and the encampment. President Mitre has applied to Congress to sanction the appointment of Sor. Marmol as Argentine Minister to Rio. We suppose it will be approved nem con.

The 'Mosquito' of last Sunday was the best number we have seen for a long time; the illustration was a sort of Paraguayan Quadrille, Lopez having to pay for the music. A mock article, taken as it were from the 'Standard,' is also very original: it says Lopez comes only to fight President Mitre, and therefore it is useless to be sending Argentines up to Corrientes as Lopez will only fight with President Mitre. The idea is good, and our colleague the 'Mosquito,' we are happy to say, is improving.

The Government has at last put a duty on stones and sand taken from Martin Garcia. We believe, however, that this tax will only last during the war. The Municipality of Buenos Ayres will now stop paving altogether we suppose.

The residents of South Barracas have sent a joint protest in to the Government against Paraguay offering themselves and their properties in defence of the country. The Government gave no reply.

The Circulo Literario seems to have expired; its reading-room is deserted, ts lecture-hall empty and the members, where are they? It is in vain to say they have gone to the war, nothing of the kind. We venture to say that not a dozen have been called out—the sad fact stares us in the face that a literary club is premature in Buenos Ayres. We have not arrived at the proper age for such a luxury, and the founders of the Circulo Literario, are men too far ahead of the age. Ten years unbroken peace, and then we can support half a dozen literary clubs,

The steamer Esmeralda with news from Bella Vista is due to day; It is more than probable she will bring us another letter from our intelligent and active corespondent in Esquina.

Mr. Lezama, a popular civil engineer, has been commissioned by the Governor to survey the Guardia del Monte. straighten the streets, and lay out the plaza. This little town is rapidly increasing in importance, and it is high time to set abont improving it.

Our readers may not have noticed that al the policemen have new coats; at first these officers of the law looked so remarkably spruce and gay that it was diffult to distinguish in the plaza the policemen from the coachmen, as the new garment resembles a cabby's overcoat on a wet day. We congratulate M. Cazon on the rather respectable appearance of his men, and hope he will take the hint himself.

One of the members of Congress, Dr. Bedoya, who has spent his recess in the Parisian hospitals, attending lectures, &c., has we understand volunteered as medical attendant on the army; this act deserves the greatest praise, as there was no obligation by law or otherwise for the Doctor to serve.

A new work on Paraguay from the talented pen of our friend Sr. Estrada will shortly make its appearance. We have no doubt it will sell well, as at present owing to the war, people take a great interest in all that concerns Paraguay and Corrientes.

Parties who have arrived from Rio by the last packet state that some ten thousand National Guards were being armed and accoutred, and that as soon as transports could be obtained they would be at once shipped to the River Plate. The war feeling in Rio was even stronger than here, and the Government is determined, no matter what the sacrifice or cost, to humble Paraguay and demolish Humaita.

President Mitre we learn has received proposals from some Italians to raise a legion of 500 men; the Italians generally speaking make good soldiers in this country, and it is more than probable that the President will accept the offer.

Sr. Vital Quirno, a young man who served both in Cepeda and Pavon, and son to Don Gregorio Quirno, has arrived in town with 35 volunteers This is the first thing of the kind since the war commenced: these 35 volunteers, at the present rate paid for 'personeros,' is equal to three hundred thousand dollars. We salute our old friend, and hope to see himself and his heroic little band return from the war covered with glory.

To-morrow night the grand ball comes off at the Progreso; it promises to be well attended, and very magnificent.

The people about San Nicolas are very thankful to Colonel Conessa, for his great consideration in reducing the contingent ordered from that partido from 500 to 400 men. Although the town of San Nicolas is large, and the partido thickly settled, 500 men from San Nicolas is greater in proportion than 5,000 from Buenos Ayres, and as nearly all the peons, &c., have fled from the neighbourhood, the majority of the Guardias Nacionales must be shopkeepers, quarteros, and estancieros.

The Western Railway time-table is changed from yesterday. The manager is always changing the hours The sooner there is a change in the management the better, but that will, we apprehend, be sooner than most people expect. Sr. Riestra takes with him positive instructions from the Governor to sell the road in London. Two trains leave daily for Mercedes, the first at 8 a.m., the second at 3 p.m.; and two trains leave Mercedes daily for town, the first at half-past 7 a.m., the second at half-past two p.m. On Sundays they leave for Mercedes for town at the same hour, but they leave town at 8 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon.

The old system of 'passes' has been again introduced in the camp, and indeed it was a mistake ever to have abolished it. As a matter of course it is proving highly beneficial for estancieros, as the partidos are now no longer crowded with vagrant gauchos from every corner of the Republic.

There is not a horse to be got for love or money at present in Entre Rios. Some speculators have been buying up all the horses to ship across the river to the Brazilians; besides this, Urquiza's army has made a clean sweep of all the horses and redomones in the centre of the province.

CODIGO RURAL.

Yesterday we received from the Minister of Government, Dr. Alsina's proposed Rural Code, which, we are glad to say, betrays much care and erudition on the part of the codifier. Codes are always troublesome things, and the best way to approach perfection is to give them every publicity before being made into a law. We confess that we have been agreeably surprised in the present one, as we anticipated a crude, ill-digested compilation of customs, framed into laws: such is far from being the case, the Rural Code is carefully drawn up and chaptered. Some few items are omitted, no doubt, concerning which we feel bound to eall attention; but, upon the whole, Dr Alsina has pnt the country under a deep obligation by grasping with a subject which has been too long deferred, and which the sooner adjudicated the better.

THE MAY FESTIVALS.

23rd.

At noon, fireworks, rockets and fire-balloons until 2 p.m., after which the acrobats will perform till sundown, with merry-go-rounds and romp-cabezas for children. Grand fireworks at night.

24th.

Same as above.

At 8 a.m. the children of the National schools will sing the Argentine Hymn around the column in Plaza Victoria. The Te Deum, attended by all the high dignitaries, will be followed by a review of the National Guard in the Plaza; after which merry-go-rounds, acrobats, &c., as before. At night fireworks and grand performances at the opera house. P.S.—No Rifa allowed this year.

ROBBERY.

On Thursday night or Friday morning last the tailor's shop belonging to Carlos Schlegel, situated in Calle Bolivar, No. 72, was broken into and the following effects have been missed:—36 cuts trowsering heavy casimir, 12 cuts for vests do, 9 pairs trowsers, 1½ pieces lustrina, 2 casimir coats and 1 jacket, amounting altogether to about nine thousand dollars.

This place being situated 2 squares from the police office, and half a square from the Government house, (Provincial) does not say much of the policemen and night watchmen. Up to Friday evening there were no tsaces of the thieves.

MAGDALENA.

THE JUDGE'S REPORT.

Magdalena is one of the finest of our Southern partidos and boasts of some of the richest foreign and native sheep-farmers in this province. As we have many subscribers in this partido we think the report of the Justice of the Peace recently sent into the Government will prove interesting:—

"The rental of the Municipality for the present year it is calculated will be equal to that of last notwithstanding that $ 130,64 mic. has to be deducted, which sum was last year presented to the Municipality by the Criminal Judge, but nevertheless it is not expected that there will be any deficit in as much as the increased rents charged on Chacras and Quintas rented will more than cover this amount.

"There is at present no public work or building going on in Magdalena save the church which will be finished, and the judge unhesitatingly asserts that when this church will be finished it will be beyond all question the finest in the province, and equal to even the best in the city. But the funds for the completion of this magnificent church are not altogether available: the Municipality is in debt, and all the public revenue of the partido for the bricks and mortar. The money promised by Government is not paid up and is very badly wanted.

The cemetery which was altogether too small for the wants of the place has been greatly enlarged at a trifling expense and is now a credit to the town.

"The Plaza has been greatly improved; posts with nice chains all round have been put up. The whole Plaza is beautifully paved with ocean shells, so that in the worst weather there is no mud. The centre of the Plaza is adorned with a splendid Pyramid which lifts its head 13 metres high. At each corner of the square, graceful Kerosene lamps have been put up which make the place look very gay and sprightly at night.

"Owing to the elevation of the Plaza the torrents which swept through the streets was found very inconvenient, but the untiring efforts of the Municipality have completely overcome this, by having a splendid stone sewer built which now well drains the town. This sewer extends 150 metres and carries the water to the outskirts of the town.

"The old ruinous tumble-down house belonging to the Municipality which was formerly a sort of prison has been repaired, remodelled, and white-washed: it is now one of the finest houses in the town: it was used as the school, but it will now be rented.

"In consequence of the interminable disputes about the limits of the townsland it has been impossible to sell any Quintas or Chacras, but the grounds are about to be surveyed, and then the Municipality will be able to sell lands to the hundreds who are applying for same for Quintas, &c.

"In consequence of the Government having suppressed all the post houses in the partido private parties are obliged to keep these necessary establishments, and the policemen of the town have frequently to act as postillions. In consequence of this the orders and citations sent to the judge by the courts of Buenos Ayres are frequently delayed.

"The police force is altogether too small and must be augmented, as frequently the Alcaldes and Tenientes have to act as policemen which is a great inconvenience. Six more policemen it is thought would be sufficient."

But we differ with Sr. Zapiola on this head, and feel bound to remark that we too frequently hear complaints from our subscribers about the great impunity for crime which exists in the Magdalena. Several murders have unhappily taken place in this partido, and with few exceptions, the murderers have invariably escaped. It is high time now that the Government takes the hint which the judge has given about, the postboy policemen who are in the town. Such a state of things is disgraceful and discreditable, and needs immediate reform. Magdalena is a large and wealthy partido, and the administration of justice and protection for life and property in that county should be a subject deserving the attention of Governor Saavedra and his ministers.

We find as usual no statistics of importance in the judge's report, nor any remarks to guide our public men as to the relative improvement of this neglected partido.

VICE-PRESIDENT JOHNSON IN CONGRESS.

Labouring through the mire of the avenue half an hour afterwards, I met a distinguished citizen of Washington, and a leading politician, who asked me if I had heard the Vice-President's speech? I replied that I had, and asked to what cause he attributed the humiliating display. "He was drunk; very drunk," he said. "But it was not his fault. His liquor was drugged by some Southern rebel, in order to throw disgrace upon the Federal Government." 'But,' said I, "if such was the intention, why did not the Southern rebel drug the President's drink rather than the Vice-President's?" "So he would have done, I have no doubt, only he could not get at old Abe, who is besides, a sober man, and does not take drinks with strangers." Meeting shortly afterwards with a Democratic senator, a moderate opponent of the Government, and no admirer of Mr. Lincoln or any member of the Administration, he asked me "if I had heard Andrew Johnson?" "The country is disgraced," he said, "and I pray God for the health and long life of Abraham Lincoln. I never prayed for him before, nor knew how valuable his life was to the country. Should he die within the next four years, which calamity may Heaven in its mercy avert, we should have Andrew Johnson for President, and sink to a lower depth of degradation than was ever reached by any nation since the Roman Emperor made his horse a consul." The editor of one of the Washington journals here stopped and took part in our conversation. "Do not," he said, "describe this scene to the people of England without telling them, at the same time, that the press of the United States, without distinction of party, were 'down' upon Mr. Johnson for his scandalous misconduct. Mark my words," he continued, "Mr. Johnson will never recover from the disgrace he has brought upon himself. He is ruined as a public man for ever." In accordance with the editor's suggestion, I record the fact that, as far as I have yet seen, the Democratic or Opposition press, and the independent journals in general, have spoken with well-merited severity on Mr Johnson's misconduct, but that the Republican, the Administration, and the philo-negro press has passed the subject over with discreet and friendly silence. To-day it is announced that Mr. Johnson is "still indisposed," and that he has been unable in consequence to preside over the deliberations of the Senate.

THE ROYAL FAMILY.

The "Court Journal" says—"An interesting event is expected at Midsummer, which will give to the nation a further guarantee for the Throne, and, we hope, increased happiness to the Royal pair."—"Liverpool, Mercury." March 18, 1865.

The Prince of Wales will hold a levée on behalf of the Queen on May 20. The next Drawing-room will be held on May 16, and the Princess of Wales, who has hitherto acted as her Majesty's representative at these receptions, will, on this occasion, for reasons already known to our readers, give place to the Princess Helena.—"Liverpool Mercury," April 8, 1865.

JEMMY GRIMSHAW.—Lord Stamford has engaged this celebrated light-weight jockey, at a salary of £1,000 per annum. The Marquis of Hastings was in treaty for him, but Lord Stamford's offer being twice the amount tendered by the Marquis, Jemmy closed with it at once.—The Field.

Gold was very firm during the earlier part of the morning, but a rumor gaining ground that the two millions would be burnt on Wednesday, caused a slight decline in the liquidation-room: however, patacons rose to 28.55 buyers, with every appearance of a further rise.

The 'bears' attribute this firmness to the Bank collecting 20 per cent. on specie bills, whispering at the same time that paper money is scarce. The 'bulls' would induce one to believe that gold is fast disappearing, and manage to convince the unwary that affairs are awfully gloomy.

National Bonds are offered at 39; buyers will not pay more than 38. The article in Sunday's 'Tribuna' was much talked of on 'Change, the opinion being a regret that such highly respectable signatures were appended to so ill-advised a measure. It was remarked that one of the largest holders of these securities had not signed the document. It is presumed that as Government bills with an endorsement are freely offered at 1½ per cent. capitalists, would prefer them to National Bonds even at 36.

Exchange for the packet was done at 49 @ 49¼. Several bills were done at 48d. cash, causing a demand for specie.

The weather has a very apparent effect on the Bolsa; business generally very flat.

The Esmeralda is expected on Tuesday from the seat of war, and will no doubt bring important news.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artizans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in latteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo. from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

Pp. Maud and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

The Bienhechora offers three various modes of Insurance to its subscribers—1st, with the loss of capital by the death of the Insured party; 2nd, with out loss of capital in said event; 3rd, with mere compound interest.

In the first form the Insured party has a right to:
1. To compound interest on the bonds purchased by the capitals received by the Company.
2. To a propertionate share of the capitals and interest of those who die in their respective sections.
3. To a proportionate share of the Capitals and Interests of forfeited subscriptions.
4. To a proportion of gains resulting from increased value of the National Bonds acquired by the inversion of funds.

In the second form the Insured claims
1. Compound Interest on the National Bonds purchased by the Association,
2. A proportionate share of the Interest due on the Capitals of those who die in the respective sections, which capitals are returned to the subscribers
3. A proportion of the interest due on forfeited shares.
4. A proportionate share of the profits arising from the increased value of the National Bonds, acquired by inversion of funds.

Finally, in the third form, gives a right to the corresponding interest produced by the Bonds purchased with their subscriptions, and the successive reinvestment of such interest, effected quarterly, when the coupons are paid up by the public treasury.

So marvellous are the benefits arising from the employment of Capitals in Public Funds, assisted by the combinations effected by "La Bienhechora," based upon the Mortality Tables of Deparcieux, and the interest produced by the 6 per cent. Consolidated Bonds, that taking for a model, the result given by other companies established precisely in the same form and basis, but with an accumulative interest much inferior to that gained by the "Bienhechora," that it is enabled to present as positive the following tables showing the gradual progression of capitals for a subscription of:
